

of Mormons exploring for gold, damming and irrigating the river. A letter from gold seekers, dated May 10, 1856, says: "Great quantities of gold have been discovered. One man took out forty days' worth of gold in one day."

One hundred Indians are camped a short distance from Riverton, where word was first discovered. They are peaceable, but say if breaks out between the Sioux and U. S. troops they will fight.

A party of Sioux were at Serant Creek, miles above Fort Laramie. They were aware of the presence of the soldiers, but that they did not arrive within ten days, they could do every white man between Laramie and the Dakota.

Several tracts of Mormons from Taxes have fallen in with between Fort Kearney and Elkhart. They had lost twenty by cholera. The balance are well.

Governor Reeder, of Kansas, has published copy of his answer to Secretary May's last letter, in which he says that he has no jurisdiction but broad Kansas lands, that he purchased such lands, and thinks he has been deceived by the Indians. He has been making up his mind for his defense against the mining rules which are not specified, and asks PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—CHLOE PAINE, a daughter of Judge Fox of Easton, Pennsylvania, died at her home here May on Saturday last. The day previous she was in the surf bathing, in robust health, but after reaching her hotel, where she had been attacked by a cold, she died.

The cholera has made its appearance at Haddonfield, where several deaths occurred, and at Camden, where the Telegram reports that the disease has been carried off by the disease, and the other is closed.

NORFOLK, Va., July 7.—RAVAGES OF YELLOW FEVER.—The fever continues its ravages in this city. Twenty cases occurred today and four deaths. In Portsmouth there were four deaths.

There is great excitement in the community. The infected districts have been fenced in and

MINNESOTA NOMINATIONS.—We have just from St. Paul, Minnesota, to the effect, that after the nomination of J. M. Rice for Congress, a number of members of the Democratic Convention met at the home of Gov. German and nominated Hon. Daniel Aronson as his opponent.

NEW YORK, July 9.

It is reported here that the German slave of Wheeler is now in the city, and that he can carry her off. On the contrary, that he had previously intimated to others here that he had been sold to the British in their desire to get rid of her.

It is rumored that a Deaf in Wall Street Bank, and also an in the city's Bank, is a defaulter in a sum varying from $25,000 to $50,000.

It has taken the water drill below the third floor to not learn, but probably this was the worst of it. The loss is estimated to be at least $200,000. As yet, the full extent of the damage is not known. Work on the line of the fire-belt, and has not yet received intelligence of its having been carried away, from which fact, with others communicated by the fire department, it is thought that the damage estimated by the Journal is by far too large. We hope it may prove to be—Atlanta Journal, 29th Oct.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF VALUABLE LOUISVILLE CITY PROPERTY BY ORDER OF THE GARRARD COUNTY COURT.

Current Court, made in the cases of Wm. Treadwell, et al., vs. Wm. Treadwell, et al., and Commissioner, who offer for sale, on MONDAY, the 10th day of September, at 10 o'clock, a.m., the following described premises, to-wit: Lots 1 and 2, in the following described property, to-wit: A strip of Main street, fronting 80 feet, and running back 600 feet from the corner of Main street and Second street, to the corner of Main street and Third street, and on west side Krescentorff's heirs, and on east side of the same, the premises were first occupied as a tavern; a double basement two-story brick building, 20 feet wide, 40 feet deep, and 10 feet high, and one small brick smoke house, capable of smoking 20,000 pieces of bacon.

Also, a lot of ground, 20 feet north of Main street, fronting 20 feet, running back 40 feet from a 20-foot strip of Main street, to the corner of Main street and Third street. On the premises are the hide and tallow works of J. W. Treadwell.

[illegible]

The three parcels of property designated above by Nos. 1, 2 and 3 will be sold subject to an annuity of $100.00 per year, payable in quarterly installments of $25.00 each, for a term of twelve hundred and fifty dollars payable in quarterly installments of $31.25 each.

The whole property will be sold on credit of $100.00 for one-half and twelve months after the other half for day of sale, and to bear interest from that date.

Notice with good security will be required from all bidders, and liens will be retained on the property until the notes are paid.

Those who desire to purchase the property will be allowed to purchase on the execution of deeds, and they have the right to return the same after date of sale.

F. MIDDLE, Commissioner

The Wife's Appeal.
You took me, William, when a girl,
You took me when I was young,
You took me when I was a child,
And now, my dear, I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,
And I am all alone and lonely,<

No, I would rather have your love,
Than any other thing,
For I am all alone and lonely,
And I am all alone and lonely,<

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,
And I am all alone and lonely,

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,<

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,

And when at last I am old,
And I am all alone and lonely,
